TV PIPELINE

By Jay Bobbin

Q: I recently saw Erika Christensen in the 2002 movie "Swimfan." What is she up to these days? —Bart Bartholomew, West Bend, Wis.

A: She's co-starring as Julia in the NBC series "Parenthood." She also appears with Jesse Metcalfe ("Chase," "Desperate Housewives") in the suspense movie "The Tortured," which was awaiting an American release date at this writing after debuting on DVD in other parts of the world.

Q: I would like to know if CBS is canceling good shows like "NCIS" and "The Good Wife" for yet another reality show, the Paula Abdul one. Please tell me it's not true. —Millie Rau, Lakewood, Colo.

A: OK ... it's not true. The network just gave Abdul's "Live to Dance" a Tuesday-night launch at the start of the month; it's now seen regularly on Wednesdays. The usual Tuesday lineup of "NCIS," "NCIS: Los Angeles" and "The Good Wife" remains intact.

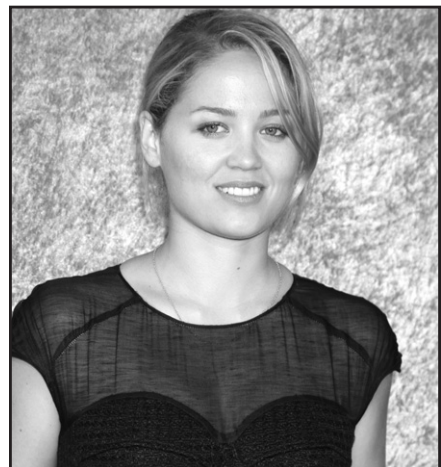

Q: I loved "The Walking Dead" on AMC. Will there be a sequel? It just can't end that way. —Joyce Kenna, Stuart, Fla.

A: No, it can't. If by "sequel," you mean "second season," there absolutely will be one. The horror drama was a blockbuster for AMC, speaking in terms relative to cable programming, so it was a no-brainer that the series would be renewed.

In fact, even though it's several months away, we can tell you exactly when the new episodes will begin: Halloween, which also happened to be the night when the show premiered last fall.

Q: What ever happened to the Lifetime show "Drop Dead Diva"? Any chance it's scheduled to return? —Bunny Hyman, Massapequa, N.Y.

A: Better than a chance, actually. The Brooke Elliott-starring show has been renewed for a third season; its new episodes typically have started in the summer, so expect to see fresh stories then.

Heidi Klum meets some 'Seriously Funny Kids'

By Jacqueline Cutler

They are the lines that, decades after they're uttered, continue to crack you up.

Maybe it's when your son, upon whom you have pinned such high hopes, says he wants to be a dolphin when he grows up. Or when your daughter, looking angelic, asks your husband's boss why she's a hooker.

Children are funny, as Lifetime intends to remind us, in "Seriously Funny Kids," premiering Tuesday, Feb. 1. Since early television, many — notably Art Linkletter and Bill Cosby — have had hilarious chats with children.

Lifetime is betting on Heidi Klum, supermodel and host of "Project Runway," to do the same. The knockout Klum has graced the Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue and strutted in Victoria's Secret fashion shows. Yet she is also the mother of four, all under 6, and she knows how funny kids can be.

"It is light and fun and crazy," she says of the show, which was not available for review. "There are a lot of commercials on my show, and basically I am interviewing the children, and there's some hidden camera stuff, so it is a mixture of different things. We do a skit where I have a giant booger shoved up my nose."

Kids will do commercials the way actors in the 1950s did. Viewers will send in videos and still photos.

Klum and executive producer Eric Schotz stress that although it is a show featuring kids, it is not a kids show.

There is no set format. Some half-hour episodes may feature 20 snippets and others fewer. The crucial aspect is to allow kids to be themselves.

"There is nothing for grown-ups about kids," Klum says. "It is such a fun and happy thing to watch kids speak their mind."

Klum dances with every child on the show, though Schotz explains dancing is expanded to include basketball, karate and all forms of movement.

"I have learned a lot of new dances. The hit-the-golf-ball dance and reel-the-fish-in dance. We used to do the stir-the-cabbage-in-the-pot dance," Klum says of her childhood in Germany.

Between Klum and her husband, R&B artist Seal, he's definitely the funnier one, she says.

"Just because of his looks," Klum says. "He is so tall and looks very rugged. He's a tall rock star with leather pants and a leather jacket, and he is on the floor and they do hop-on horsey. It looks pretty funny to me."

Klum, naturally, knows how to talk to kids, and she remembers the indignity of adults talking down to them.

"I talk to them like people, and I don't treat them like children," she says.

As such, a 4-year-old explains aging. "She says when you laugh a lot and have so much fun, you get wrinkles that go around the eyes, and the gray hair is when follicles lose color," Klum says.

Klum asks the usual, including what they want to be when they grow up, but also asks, "What is the meaning of life?"

"Some say there is no meaning," she says. "Some say you are there to have fun and grow up and have a family. I am always interested to see what point of view a child has."

As any parent knows, kids don't censor themselves, which Schotz appreciates.

The new show rides on the shoulders of old shows such as the 1998-2000 series "Kids Say the Darndest Things" (which Schotz helped produce). A child proved that title remains true during a recent taping for "Seriously Funny Kids."

Klum asks, "Where do we come from?"

Schotz quotes the boy: "Well, Jesus took a potato and made man."

Heidi Klum hosts "Seriously Funny Kids," premiering Tuesday on Lifetime.

Turner Classic Movies offers up a fresh '31 Days of Oscar'

By Jay Bobbin

Oscar month usually has 28 days. On Turner Classic Movies, though, it always has 31. The channel again marks the upcoming Academy Awards - to be broadcast Feb. 27 on ABC - as the annual "31 Days of Oscar" festival of nominated and winning films starts Monday, Feb. 1. Oscar trivia is the theme this time, reflected in nearly 350 features ranging from classics such as 1939's "Gone With the Wind" (Feb. 12) to more modern fare including 1983's "Terms of Endearment" (Wednesday, Feb. 2) ... two of the titles helping to ensure that a winner for best picture is shown every night of the TCM event.

"Terms of Endearment," starring Debra Winger (left) and Shirley MacLaine, airs Wednesday as part of Turner Classic Movies' "31 Days of Oscar" festival that runs throughout February.

Among the Academy Award facts mirrored by the month's groupings of films: movies that were nominated for best director but not best picture; attractions that earned nominations in all four acting categories; and the most Oscar-nominated performer to date, Jack Nicholson, saluted in a minifestival the second night.

The trivia-centric approach has natural appeal to TCM host Robert Osborne, an Oscar historian who has written numerous books on the Academy Awards.

"Trivia is what we do all year long," Osborne says, "but this brings up some interesting angles on the people involved. It's kind of nice to put the movies in a different context."

Osborne uses the 1940 comedy "The Philadelphia Story" (airing Feb. 14) as an example of a film he has introduced on TCM many times. "You can use it as part of a Jimmy Stewart cavalcade, or to showcase the director George Cukor, or to tie it into Broadway plays that have been made into movies. Or you might use it in a salute to Cary Grant or Katharine Hepburn. There are all kinds of different ways to come at it."

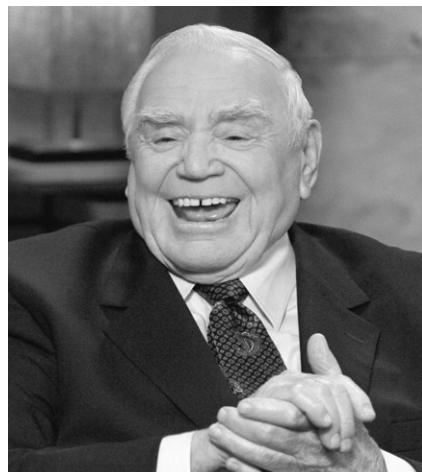

The 2011 edition of "31 Days of Oscar" features several new-to-TCM titles including "Pretty Woman" (1990, Feb. 12), "Thelma & Louise" (1991, Feb. 23) and "Forrest Gump" (1994, Feb. 11).

"We try to do that a little every month," Osborne confirms, "but certainly in a month like February. We don't want people to open their program guide or look at their TCM app on their iPhones and see just the same movies all the time. It just gives a different flavor."

IN FOCUS

"17th Annual Screen Actors Guild Awards," www.sagawards.org

On Sunday, TBS airs the annual gala in which actors honor actors. The official home page for the awards offers a countdown clock, the latest news, information on tickets and screening parties, information on submitting performers for awards, video clips, and information on an auction of bleacher seats for the red-carpet arrivals that benefits the SAG Foundation's childhood literacy efforts.

IN FOCUS

"Auction Kings," dsc.discovery.com/tv/auction-kings/

On Tuesday, Discovery Channel's series about unusual auction house Gallery 63, located in Sandy Springs, Ga., comes to its first season finale. If you're tuning in late and want to get caught up, visit the official home page. It offers a complete schedule of episodes and their descriptions, bios of the Gallery 63 crew, interactive puzzles and a game that allows viewers to guess the bid on the unusual merchandise that has made the auction house famous.

IN FOCUS

"Million Dollar Listing," www.bravotv.com/million-dollar-listing

On Tuesday, the real estate reality show returns for its fourth season, and things are a little bit different. Agent Chad Rogers is out, but Josh Flagg and Madison Hildebrand are back, along with new agent Josh Altman. The home page offers clips and photos of the new season, in which the agents try to make it big in a still-tight high-end housing market.

Police Department Continues With Pedestrian Safety Enforcement

Mayor Mark A. Smith, Public Safety Director Jason O'Donnell, and Police Chief Robert Kubert announced that the Bayonne Police Department is continuing with its stepped-up enforcement of pedestrian safety. This special enforcement is made possible through grant funding from the New Jersey Division of Highway Traffic Safety (NJ-DHTS). This $15,000 grant was allocated to the Bayonne Police Department for Fiscal Year 2011. The grant period began on October 1, 2010, and continues through September 30, 2011.

The grant provides funding for extra police patrols to enforce violations that put drivers and pedestrians at risk. The grant enables Chief Kubert to assign officers to these patrols on an overtime basis without adding to local property taxes. The goal of the program is to reduce motor vehicle crashes and pedestrian injuries in Bayonne. Officers will be looking for such potentially dangerous situations as speeding, red light violations, jaywalking, and failing to yield to pedestrians in crosswalks.

Motorists and pedestrians are reminded to be safe on the road. Drivers should be alert for pedestrians at all times, and should yield to pedestrians in crosswalks and while turning at intersections. Drivers should also obey speed limits, keep their windshields clean, and refrain from blocking crosswalks.

Pedestrians should be alert when walking. Never assume that a motorist will see you while you are crossing the street. Pedestrians should also cross at the corner, and not jaywalk in between parked cars.

Additional funding is provided for educational items. Officers are available to speak with interested groups regarding pedestrian safety or other traffic safety issues. Any group interested in having an officer speak should send a letter to Chief Robert Kubert and request an officer to speak at their meeting. For more information, call the Bayonne Police Department at 201-858-6900.

Scorpio, new responsibilities pop up that need your immediate attention. It could be time to delegate some of these tasks.
SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21 Sagittarius, it might take a little while for you to dig out from behind the pile of honey-do tasks on your list. However, once you do, it will be smooth sailing for at least a month.
CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20 Capricorn, someone can use your help this week, but you won't know who it is until the week progresses. Just leave your calendar open for the next several days.
AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18 Aquarius, there are busy times ahead, so rest up for the days of work on the horizon. You won't be tackling everything alone, but there will certainly be a lot to do.

TV TALK MAGAZINE

LONG RUNS INTO THIRTY-FIVE

Long runs in any field are especially satisfying. As for me, I take much pride in the fact that I have been publishing this weekly magazine for such a long period of time. It is not easy meeting deadlines every day but, it is a challenge and when it all comes together, it is truly rewarding. Breaking records is a fun American thing. I don't really know what records I'm breaking, but with the success that TV Talk has achieved and with a magazine's "ink in my veins" I've always enjoyed doing what I've been doing diligently for these past thirty-five years.

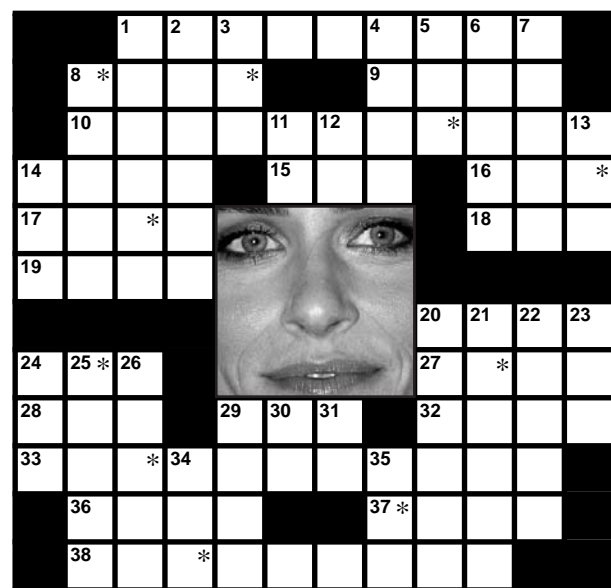

As the founder, president and publisher of TV Talk Magazine, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all my advertisers, many of whom in my thirty-four years of service, have grown up with me and have become like family. Nothing has been more rewarding than to watch so many small businesses start with dreams and ideas and to help them flourish along the way. Some have stayed on as small businesses, and others have gone on to become large multi-million dollar enterprises. I remember each and every one of you. Our stories and laughs could make a "#1 Best Seller!" But, most of all, the knowledge we share is by far the best!

At this time, I would also like to thank my loyal readers who have been part of TV Talk's team. They have referred to TV Talk seven days a week, four to five times per day, shopped and dined locally at my advertisers establishments, and have called to express their views and ideas which make it all a team effort.

Contact me today at (201) 437-5677 where I'll be glad to take your suggestions and meet your advertising needs. Join our ever-growing family of advertisers and readers as TV Talk turns thirty-five and looks ahead to thirty-six!

Yours truly,
Carole

BEFORE AND AFTER IN THE SOAPS

By Toby Goldstein

ALL MY CHILDREN: After almost attacking Marissa with scissors, an obsessively possessive Annie barged JR with voicemails. When Marissa forced JR to decide if he loves Annie, JR's reply was to tell Annie that they couldn't see each other until the divorce is final. Damon's decision to accept a law job in California didn't sit well with Tad, although he acted as though he's fine. Coming: JR is disturbed by something related to Annie.

BOLD AND BEAUTIFUL: Stephanie tried without success to get Nick to kick his addiction, for his health and for Jack's sake, while Nick insisted to all concerned that he'd be fine. Tawny, now settled into a trailer park with Amber, came up with a friend who could falsify any paternity test results, although Amber remained reluctant to pass off her unborn child as Liam's. Coming: Hope's fears about Amber are well founded.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES: Sami's joy at being given shared custody of the children turned to fury when she learned that Nicole would also have rights, should anything happen to EJ. However, after Rafe was seriously injured in a car accident, a guilt-ridden Sami signed the custody papers. To help Hope, Jennifer stole Ben's keys, enabling Carly to examine the medical files and realize that the warden is killing inmates for their organs. Coming:

Chloe's depression appears headed for a tragic end.

DESPERATE HOUSEWIVES: In a re-broadcast of the episode originally aired on October 10, Susan discovered that a competitor was copying some of her suggestive Internet moves. Gabrielle concealed from Carlos that she hired a private detective. The unorthodox remedy Tom's doctor prescribed for his depression took Lynette aback. Coming: Time is running out for Susan.

GENERAL HOSPITAL: The Balkan brought a mercenary to Port Charles, who gave Johnny a beating. Lucky claimed to Siobhan that she's pushing him away because she really cares about him. Later, Lucky's trap to catch the traitor led to a confrontation. Abby's abusive boyfriend Brandon attacked her with rape on his mind. While dealing with memories of Carter, Michael fought Brandon to protect Abby. Coming: Threats escalate as the wedding day nears.

GOSSIP GIRL: Russell Thorpe, a former associate of Chuck's father, returned to Manhattan to take care of some unfinished business, bringing his daughter Raina with him. Serena and Chuck teamed up against her deceitful mother, Lily. Blair realized that her mom, Eleanor, could be the key to Blair becoming a future business tycoon. Coming: Lily's treachery has come with a high cost.

ONE LIFE TO LIVE: While Kelly decided that the way to dig up dirt about Aubrey is to date Cutter, he was concerned that Aubrey is developing a personal interest in Joey, rather than pursuing his wealth. Clint tried to force Aubrey to sign a prenuptial agreement, only to find her ready to expose his DNA switch. Meanwhile, Dorian revealed to Rex that she thinks Clint is his father. Coming: Clint's world is about to explode.

PRETTY LITTLE LIARS: As the girls raised money in a dance-a-thon for a school trip to Washington, D.C., Hanna was preoccupied with her financial crisis at home. "A" offered a needy Hanna a job that she might not be able to refuse. Aria's former baby sitter, Simone, returned to town and, to Aria's horror, showed a keen interest in Ezra. Desperate to speak to Maya, Emily stayed in true character and turned to the new bad boy at school, Caleb, for help. Coming: Hanna is faced with equally unpleasant options.

YOUNG AND RESTLESS: While Daniel was stunned to realize he could be holding his daughter, Victor ignored the infant, more interested in spreading the news that Sharon was arrested for Skye's murder. Denying any involvement in Skye's disappearance, Victor ordered Michael to secretly have Sharon's bail paid. Meanwhile, Phyllis stated to Billy that she doesn't believe Sharon is guilty. Coming: Victor and Diane have an unlikely bond.

WOLFGANG PUCK'S KITCHEN By Wolfgang Puck

CHOCOLATE TREATS FOR YOUR SWEETHEART

Valentine's Day is one of my favorite holidays. What else would you expect from a chef whose personal culinary motto is "Live, Love, Eat!"

But that doesn't mean I spend a lot of time cooking for my sweetheart on that holiday - and I don't suggest that you do, either. After all, the more you're in the kitchen, the less time you have to devote to romance.

I know that a lot of people are fond of chocolate chip cookies that are extra chewy in the middle - and that some of them even like to eat cookie dough unbaked. But I prefer cookies to be evenly dark brown, which eliminates the flavor of raw flour and gives the dough a rich, nutty taste and irresistible crispness. Besides, there's so much soft chocolate in my cookies that you won't even miss that raw dough.

Try my recipe and I think you'll agree. Serve them to your Valentine for breakfast; as a mid-morning or mid-afternoon snack or with ice cream for dessert after lunch or dinner. They also make the perfect goodnight kiss.

Happy Valentine's Day!
WHITE AND DARK CHOCOLATE CHUNK COOKIES
 Makes about 5 dozen

6 ounces good quality bittersweet chocolate
 4 ounces white chocolate
 1 3/4 cups all-purpose flour
 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 pound unsalted butter, chilled, cut into 1/2-inch pieces
 1/2 cup granulated sugar
 1/3 cup packed light brown sugar
 1 large egg
 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract

Using a serrated knife, carefully cut the chocolate into 1/4- to 1/2-inch pieces. In a bowl, sift together the flour, baking soda and salt.

In the bowl of a stand mixer fitted with the paddle attachment, or using a hand mixer, cream the butter at medium speed until fluffy and pale yellow, about 2 minutes. With a rubber spatula, scrape down the sides of the bowl and the paddle or beaters. Add the sugars and continue to beat until smooth, 1 to 2 minutes. Add the egg and vanilla and beat at low speed just until incorporated.

Still beating at low speed, gradually add the flour, continuing just until it is incorporated. Add the chocolate chunks and beat them with the paddle or stir with a wooden spoon just until incorporated into the dough.

Place a sheet of parchment paper or waxed paper on a work surface. Using clean hands or a spatula, scoop up the dough and form 2 logs on the paper, each about 2 inches in diameter. Roll them up in the paper, wrap in foil, and refrigerate for at least 2 hours or as long as 1 week.

To bake, position an oven rack on the lower level and preheat the oven to 350 degrees and then line baking sheets with parchment paper. Using a serrated knife, cut the dough logs into slices 1/4 to 1/3 inch thick. Place the cookies on the parchment-covered baking sheets about 1 inch apart. Bake 10 to 12 minutes, rotating the baking sheets front to back halfway through to ensure even baking. The cookies are done when their edges and bottoms are nicely browned.

Remove the cookies from the oven and cool on wire racks; or just slide the parchment paper off onto a heat-proof surface for the cookies to cool. Store in an airtight container.

Fun By The Numbers
 Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:
 Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

POMPEI PIZZA 50th ANNIVERSARY 1961-2011

480 Broadway, Bayonne, NJ

Call 201-437-5408 or 201-858-9026

By David Burstein

This efficiently run pizza parlor / Italian restaurant has been serving generations of Bayonne residents great Italian foods, continuously for fifty years. They have the added benefit of being in the midst of one of the busiest locations in town at 480 Broadway between 22nd and 23rd Streets, where the traffic is steady and the good food beckons.

Can you imagine how many pizzas, heros and calzones they have served up over that fifty year period? It would boggle the mind! They have built a legacy in town, and they are proud of the continuity of their pizzeria.

All this began in 1961 when Dominick Aiello started the business. Things have changed quite a bit since that time. The restaurant has been upgraded and just this month the owners have completely renovated the entire pizzeria / restaurant to celebrate their 50th anniversary. Other businesses have come and gone, but, Pompei Pizza keeps on "rolling along". They have maintained their standards and their customers. This pizzeria is run by the original two Vito's, one is the nephew of Dominick, Vito Palmieri, the other, his son, Vito Aiello. They are constantly serving up pizzas and an entire menu of excellent, fresh Italian delicacies. Pompei offers over 25 varieties of pizza alone, plus soups, salads, sandwiches, pasta, seafood, poultry and all sorts of focaccia choices. There is plenty of room to sit in comfort and eat in, or you can call in, pick up and go. There is also all day free delivery, and expert catering.

It's a great feeling when you're able to serve the children and grandchildren of your original customers. It's like having an extended family that keeps on visiting because you have a great place where they'd like to be. The food at Pompei Pizza is simply delicious and you'll find a 'laid back', friendly atmosphere about getting your food there. A personal one-on-one feeling is ever present, and the warmth from the obvious kind folks who run the place, transfers to you.

Why not come in to Pompei Pizza and help them celebrate their fifty satisfying years in business. You'll enjoy the visit, and maybe even have a tasty slice of one of the pizzas that have helped keep them serving you for such a long time. Check out their menu on the back page of this magazine and call 201-437-5408 for delivery or pick-up.
