TV PIPELINE

By Jay Bobbin

Q: I know the end of "Scandal" is coming up. Who made the decision to end the show, ABC or Shonda Rhimes? — Cathy Lang, via e-mail

A: From most reports, it was by mutual agreement, with Rhimes apparently deciding to end the series while it still was performing well with viewers and in the ratings. The final "Scandal" episode for star Kerry Washington and company is set to air April 19, and it will come on the heels of a couple of new Rhimes-produced dramas being introduced by ABC, the "Grey's Anatomy" firefighter spinoff

Kerry Washington A: In what turned out to be a surprise twist midway through the CBS reboot's first season, Patricia Thornton — named in homage to the original show's Pete Thornton (who was embodied by actor Dana Elcar), and played by Sandrine Holt — was exposed as an enemy agent and arrested. She then was replaced by current Phoenix Foundation boss Matty Webber, portrayed by Meredith Eaton.

As for Holt, who has done a lot of television over the years ("Once a Thief," "The Returned," "Hostages," etc.), she has landed another series role. She's among the stars — along with Steve Zahn and Natalie Martinez ("A.P.B.") — of "The Crossing," an ABC sci-fi drama that's slated to premiere April 2.

Q: How many episodes are now the norm for a TV series? Every one of my favorite shows is in reruns now. — Trevor Kelly, Victoria, B.C.

A: We should specify that this letter was received during the Winter Olympics, when rival broadcast networks went largely into repeat mode, which typically wouldn't be the norm in ratings-conscious February. Expecting the Olympics would get their traditionally big tune-in, others didn't want to "sacrifice" new series episodes, opting to save them for later in the TV season.

With that said, the norm for a broadcast network show's full season now is 22 episodes — some shows a few more, some a few less. When it's bought for its first year, a series usually gets a 13-episode order, which is why you'll hear references to a program getting picked up for its "back nine" — the remaining nine stories that would add up to a total of 22.

Young lawyers work 'For the People' in new ABC drama from Shonda Rhimes

By Jay Bobbin

Television mega-producer Shonda Rhimes has told tales about the law, but now, she's coming at them from a different angle.

"How to Get Away With Murder" has taken a specific approach to the legal profession, and — fueled by series creator, fellow executive producer and former litigator Paul William Davies — Rhimes tackles another by following young lawyers on opposing sides of federal cases in "For the People," which ABC debuts Tuesday, March 13. Public defenders (played by Britt Robertson, Jasmin Savoy Brown and Wesam Keesh) and prosecutors (Ben Rappaport, Rege-Jean Page, Susannah Flood) clash regularly in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York ... also known as "The Mother Court."

Davies reasons that in recent years, "Entertainment has focused on the process of the law and understanding the system, as opposed to more of a 'Perry Mason' who-did-it. And that really interested me, and I think that interested Betsy (Beers, a longtime Rhimes producing colleague) and Shonda in trying to give kind of a fuller picture of the law and what people who are involved in the law go through ... the lawyers, the clients, the judges, the clerks, the entire system. I feel like we're a part of that, and that's a good thing."

Actress Robertson, who's been busy in both TV ("Under the Dome," "Life Unexpected") and movies ("Tomorrowland," "The Space Between Us"), allows that working on "For the People" is giving her "a very different point of view" on the world of law.

"I just always assumed if a guy's being prosecuted, he did something wrong. And what I'm learning — specifically through my character, Sandra, because she's such an advocate for people and it's a big part of her passion — is finding out (about) whoever she's defending and their story and why they've been put in this position. That's at the core of what drives her, finding unique and creative ways to defend these people when the odds are stacked against her."

The "For the People" cast also includes stage and screen veteran Hope Davis ("American Crime") as the boss of the defense attorneys, Ben Shenkman ("Billions") as the prosecutors' chief, actor-director Vondie Curtis-Hall as the judge who rules in what both sides present, and actress-playwright Anna Devere Smith as the court clerk.

"I was lucky enough to follow around the public defender of Los Angeles," Davis says, "and I was so inspired by how committed they are to their job, whether the odds are stacked against them or not. They're fierce and they're fighters. They are so passionate about it, and they wouldn't trade their jobs for anything. So that's kind of the way I'm approaching it."

Hope Davis stars in "For the People," premiering Tuesday on ABC.

Jay Ryan is still on hand as 'Mary Kills People'

By Jay Bobbin

For Jay Ryan, "Mary Kills People" is a far cry from "Beauty and the Beast," but it's yielding its own rewards for him.

Among those are big changes for his character in Season 2 of the Canadian-made Lifetime series, which begins Monday, March 12. Caroline Dhavernas returns as the title character, a doctor who secretly deals in assisted suicide, with Ryan as a police detective who caught on to her and her once-and-again partner in death dealing (Richard Short). Rachele Lefevre ("Under the Dome") joins the show for its sophomore round of six episodes.

Jay Ryan is among the stars of "Mary Kills People," which starts its second season Monday on Lifetime.

Ryan's Ben Wesley ended Season 1 by meting out death himself, and Lefevre plays the sister of his victim Grady, who supplied drugs to Mary and Des (Short). Reflecting that the series "raises all these different questions," the friendly Ryan notes that it still encompasses "many pillars of what makes great drama ... lots of conflict, unrequited love, et cetera.

"This is a really nail-biting kind of show that the creators (including literal series creator Tara Armstrong and executive producer Tassie Cameron) have made. I have this bad habit of actually biting my nails, but that's how thrilling it is that those who surround Mary all have such power struggles. They're living in danger, with a lot on the line. I think these are characters that viewers can identify with."

Ben is one of them, in Ryan's view: "He's a man of many masks. He likes to hide behind roles, and that makes him feel safe and secure — but as he delved into Mary's world a bit more, those masks slipped away. In Season 2, Ben has put all of that behind him. He realizes he crossed a line and almost lost his job, and he's a bit of a lost soul again. He's on another case, and he doesn't expect to run into Mary at all. Of course, she's involved, and we see which one is going to jump back from the flame first."

Though his "Mary Kills People" work is vastly different from his four seasons as the troubled, romantic Vincent opposite Kristin Kreuk on "Beauty and the Beast," New Zealand native Ryan appreciates the ongoing support of that former CW show's devotees. "They're very much a fan base that is vocal on social media," he says, "which helps raise awareness and brings smaller shows a new audience. I'm very appreciative of those fans."

Fire Department Acquires New Thermal Imaging Devices, Enough for All Firefighters at Fires

Mayor Jimmy Davis announced that the Bayonne Fire Department has quadrupled its number of thermal imaging devices from nine to thirty-six. These devices enable firefighters to find victims and see exits in dark and smoky conditions. This new purchase will allow all firefighters to have these hand-held devices at the scenes of fires.

Mayor Davis said, "Bayonne is the first municipality of our size in the state to be able to deploy thermal imaging devices to all firefighters on duty at a fire." Mayor Davis added, "This is huge. Everyone has a set of eyes now." Fire Chief Keith Weaver said, "This is a game-changer. We have set a benchmark for other departments to follow." Up till now, Chief Weaver said, each crew of firefighters had only one device for several firefighters. By having devices now for each firefighter at a fire, "It will improve the safety and efficiency of the department, and will enhance the safety of the public," Chief Weaver said. Chief Weaver added, "No doubt, it will save lives."

Chief Weaver thanked Mayor Davis and Public Safety Director Robert Kubert for supporting the purchase of the imaging devices. Weaver said, "The Mayor and the Public Safety Director are moving in a progressive direction."

When the Bayonne Fire Department acquired its first thermal imaging devices in the 1990's, Weaver said, each device was priced in the $20,000 to $25,000 range. At that time, the department held a fundraising campaign to purchase what were then considered to be expensive products. Now that technology prices have dropped, one of the larger imaging devices costs about $3,000, while a smaller units costs about $1,100. Officers in charge will hold the larger devices, while rank-and-file firefighters will hold the smaller units.

The new thermal imaging devices were purchased using $39,150 in funds from last year's municipal budget.

HOROSCOPES

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20 A voice of reason may be telling you to slow down, Aries. Listen to this voice and take a breather. You will be glad you did when you get a chance to sit back and relax.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21 Taurus, it can be challenging to measure progress right now, but rest assured you're on the right track. Trust your instincts and let the results speak for themselves.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21 Gemini, communication is your strong suit this week. You may find yourself in a position to convey difficult directions to others or serve as the mouthpiece of the company.

CANCER - Jun 22/Jul 22 Cancer, it may seem like people are judging you, even before they get to know you or your intentions. Be patient and give new relationships time to develop.

LEO - Jul 23/Aug 23 Your friendly demeanor puts others at ease, Leo. However, they may be so enamored with your personality that they overlook your accomplishments this week.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22 See if you can go unseen for the next few days, Virgo. Now is not your time to bask in the spotlight. You might get more done if you sit back and give others a chance to shine.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23 Your relationships mean a lot to you, Libra. You want to do everything possible to solidify those close friendships. Be sure to network whenever possible.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22 Scorpio, you can use a little personal recognition this week, even if you have to encourage others to give you some words of praise. Use those positive words as inspiration.

SAGITTARIUS-Nov 23/Dec 21 The ups and downs that have defined a romantic relationship are about to become a little more complex, Sagittarius. These plot twists can be exciting.

CAPRICORN-Dec 22/Jan 20 You may want to lighten up your mood, Capricorn. Figure out how to express your fun-loving side. Take some cues from friends who can get you to relax.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18 Aquarius, people want to share in your current success, but you don't share the same views - especially when you think your accomplishments aren't that big a deal.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20 Try to escape into a fantasy world for a little while, Pisces. You don't have to focus on serious tasks all of the time and will enjoy this respite.

ITALIAN BAKERY & DELI

1087 Avenue C
(Near 53rd Street)
Bayonne, N.J.

Call

201-339-8004

Everybody loves a bakery. Who doesn't crave the tasty pastries that come out of the many ovens that fill the back rooms. There are various pastries, home-cooked breads, buns, cupcakes, cookies, pies and everything else that goes into making a bakery the most delicious business in the world.

Now, enter into the world of Antonio and Vincent's Italian Bakery. It's a virtual love-fest. When you're here at the counter you become a part of the Calderone family that bakes all the goodies you see. They are baked with much love, care and determination that what you are going to taste is the best that it can be. The products that come out of this Italian bakery, come deep from the heart, and they are wholly incomparable. They cannot be duplicated. They can only be enjoyed at it's fullest.

This talented family of bakers has been serving Bayonne for quite a while. It was founded by Vinny Calderone Sr. who was baking up a storm by himself. But, now the second generation of Calderone's have taken over and they have created a new vibrancy along with wonderful baking expertise that is just mouth-watering in it's texture and taste. You haven't tasted cannoli's or St. Joseph's zeppoles like these in a long time. And the Irish soda bread, crusty Italian breads, and hot cross buns are equally as good. Anything you sink your teeth into, just melts in your mouth.

From mom Gina, to son Vincent and daughters Daniella and Rosalina along with daughter-in-law Kristen, this is a true family affair, and it shows. Everything in this bakery is created fresh and wholesome. How can you not love it all?

Bring home some of those delicious pastries that are so good for nibbling. Now, that's what I call heaven.

SOAP Updates

COMPILED BY DANA BLOCK

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL Bill remained unfazed by Sally's threats. Sheila watched with interest as it quickly became evident just how much Ridge hated Bill. Quinn worried when Eric's health was affected by the news of Bill and Steffy's affair. Pam tried to play cupid for Steffy and Liam. Justin reminded Bill of what would happen if he disowned both Liam and Wyatt. Old feelings of jealousy resurfaced for Steffy when Liam mentioned Hope's name. Quinn promised Wyatt that she would take care of Bill. Ridge was pleased to see Steffy making a special dinner for Liam. Bill unexpectedly fired a loyal employee who had been working for him for decades. Wait to See: A familiar face returns to town to settle a score.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES

Vivian and Kate hurled accusations at one another. Eli questioned a new suspect about Andre's murder. Abigail dreamed of Andre, who gave her clues about his killer. Claire debated whether she should tell Hope the truth about Rafe's affair. Vivian's life was threatened during an unusual encounter. Gabi confided in Sonny about her fear of going to prison. Valerie questioned Eli's decision about letting JJ raise his child. Later, JJ suggested to Lani that they elope. Stefan and Vivian discussed what really happened the night of Andre's murder. Chad got closer to the truth. Ciara comforted Tripp about Steve. Brady learned that Maggie left Victor and was tempted to come clean with Eve. Hope and Rafe prepared for their big day! Wait to See: Valerie confronts Lani over marrying JJ.

Vinessa Antoine stars as "Jordan" on "General Hospital."

GENERAL HOSPITAL Sonny felt helpless. Tensions ran high at the PCPD. Ava gained confidence. Nelle bonded with Joss. Julian suffered a big blow. Dante worried about Peter's intentions. Franco grew more restless. Scott was supportive. Curtis and Drew worked together. Anna had some news for Felicia. Franco struggled against his nightmares. Sonny pleaded with Ava. Kiki learned that not everything was as it seemed. Kim became intrigued with Julian. Griffin was happy for Ava. Scott and Kevin put aside their differences. Franco had an epiphany. Jordan was put in a precarious position. Drew looked to Kim for answers. Wait to See: Sonny and Carly come to a decision that affects their family.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Hilary was upset after her meeting with a potential sperm donor did not go well. J.T. was shocked when he learned that Mac was suing him for full custody of their kids. Later, Victoria asked Reed for his take on Mac, but Reed didn't offer up much information. Devon threatened to sue Hilary if she left "GC Buzz." Jack met with Victoria to discuss a strategy to get Ashley to return to Jabot. Hilary received a mysterious phone call at work and left Mariah to host the show alone. Devon toasted Mariah on a job well done and suggested removing Hilary from hosting duties altogether. Victoria phoned Mac to see if she would change her mind about custody. Wait to See: Sharon comes to Nick's rescue.

ing others to do the same. He added, "For a long time America enjoyed a geographical advantage in the world, with oceans on both sides of us, and now social media has created a cyber-bridge over which those who do not have our best interest in mind can cross, and we are allowing it. No wall is going to protect us from that, and this easy access has to be more responsibly handled." ***

The producers of the hit HBO series "Game of Thrones," now in its final season, have signed to create "Star Wars" films for Disney that will be separate from the current franchise, as well as a "Star Wars" TV series, which we knew had to happen sooner or later. ***

Armie Hammer, so good in "Call Me by Your Name," can console himself for not getting an Oscar nomination with the two films he's just completed. The first is "Hotel Mumbai," with two-time Oscar nominee Dav Patel (for "Slumdog Millionaire" in 2008 and "Lion" in 2016). The second is "On the Basis of Sex," a drama about Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, with Felicity Jones (Oscar nominee for "The Theory of Everything" in 2014) as Ruth, and Armie as her husband, Martin, with help from Justin Theroux, Kathy Bates and Sam Waterston. Call Hammer by any name, so long as it's not "The Lone Ranger," his 2013 flop with Johnny Depp!

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — "Doctor Dolittle" was originally a 1967 film with Rex Harrison. Harrison was fresh off his Oscar win for "My Fair Lady" (1965), and "Dr. Dolittle," which also starred Samantha Egger and Anthony Newley, was a dismal flop. It cost $17 million and made only $9 million. 20th Century Fox tried again in 1998 with Eddie Murphy, and the sequel grossed $294 million. Another sequel in 2001, also with Murphy, grossed $176 million. Now, Universal Studios has acquired the rights and are making "Voyage of Dr. Doolittle" with Robert Downey Jr. in the title role. ***

Robert Downey Jr.

Downey's been Tony Stark, aka "Iron Man," since 2008 and has completed "The Avengers: Infinity War," due in May, and

WOLFGANG PUCK'S KITCHEN

By Wolfgang Puck
A SPECIAL TREAT FOR ANYTIME OF DAY OR NIGHT

Of all the many kinds of dessert I know and love, one in particular stands out because people enjoy eating it at any time of day - after dinner, for breakfast, as a mid-morning or afternoon treat, or even late at night standing in front of the open refrigerator.

I'm talking, of course, about cheesecake.

It's easy to understand why cheesecake enjoys such round-the-clock popularity. After all, it features ingredients that work well in so many different recipes, both sweet and savory: cream cheese, sour cream and eggs. Combined with sugar, sweet spices and other embellishments such as fruit, nuts or chocolate, those main elements add up to a treat that's at once rich, wholesome and entirely satisfying. And the recipe is easy to make for children who are young, old or even grown-up.

Such ease of preparation is especially true for my Mini Strawberry Swirl Cheesecakes. You don't need any of the special equipment some cheesecake recipes require, particularly a springform pan with removable sides. In fact, they bake in 1-cup (250-ml) ramekins - and even a muffin pan will do fine. And my cheesecakes are crustless, so there's no mussing or fussing with graham cracker or cookie crumbs.

What makes the recipe extra delightful is the strawberry puree in each little cheesecake. Since we all eat with our eyes first, that colorful swirl immediately excites the appetite. You can use another kind of berry instead, if you like, such as raspberries, boysenberries or blueberries. Whatever your choice, try to find good-quality organic berries to ensure that you have the best-tasting, healthiest and most environmentally responsible results.

As for the cheese part, my recipe features the same creamy mixture we use to make Spago's popular cheesecake. I always get the best results from the widely available blocks of Philadelphia brand. Be sure to buy regular cream cheese - not whipped or light varieties. And don't forget to make enough of these little treats. I love them so much, I've even been known to double the recipe. If you bake them in individual ceramic ramekins, you don't even have to unmold the extras. Just keep them covered with plastic wrap in the refrigerator and enjoy them several days later, right out of the mold or unmolded and decorated with more sauce and berries.

Just don't eat it standing up in front of the refrigerator.

MINI STRAWBERRY-SWIRL CHEESECAKES Makes 12

STRAWBERRY COMPOTE:
3 baskets fresh strawberries, 1 pint each, hulled and cut into thick slices
3/4 cup granulated sugar
1-1/2 cinnamon sticks

SPAGO CHEESECAKE FILLING:
1-1/2 pounds cream cheese, cut into small pieces, at room temperature
1-1/4 cups granulated sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup sour cream
1 tablespoon dark rum
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 teaspoons vanilla extract
3 eggs
Water
Sliced fresh strawberries or whole blueberries, for garnish

Position the rack in the center of the oven. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. With non-stick cooking spray, coat each of a dozen 1-cup ramekins. Set aside.

First, make the Strawberry Compote: In a medium nonreactive saucepan, combine the berries, sugar and cinnamon sticks. Cook over medium-high heat, stirring occasionally, until the mixture thickens slightly and just coats the back of a spoon, about 15 minutes. Set aside to cool.

Prepare the Spago Cheesecake Filling: Put the cream cheese, sugar and salt in the large bowl of an electric mixer or in a large mixing bowl. Using the paddle or beaters of a hand-held electric mixer, beat at medium speed until smooth, stopping occasionally to scrape down the sides and the beaters with a rubber spatula. Raise the speed to high and continue to beat until the mixture is creamy. Add the sour cream, rum, lemon juice and vanilla, and continue beating at medium speed until well blended. Add the eggs and beat just until combined.

Bring a kettle of water to a boil. Meanwhile, spoon about 1 tablespoon of the cooled Strawberry Compote into the bottom of each ramekin. Reserve the rest covered in the refrigerator. Fill each ramekin with the Spago Cheesecake Filling.

Arrange the ramekins in a large baking pan with sides. Open the oven, carefully slide out the shelf and place the baking pan on the shelf. Pour boiling water into the pan halfway up the sides of the ramekins. Carefully slide in the shelf, close the oven door and bake until the cheesecakes begin to pull away from the sides of the ramekins and are almost firm to the touch, 35 to 40 minutes.

Carefully remove the baking pan from the oven. Carefully lift out the ramekins and place on a wire rack and let cool. Refrigerate, covered, overnight.

When ready to serve, run a sharp knife around the inside edge of each ramekin and invert the cheesecake onto a serving plate. The compote will run down the sides of each cake. If they stick, dip the bottoms of the ramekins in hot water for 30 seconds to loosen the cheesecakes and try again.

Garnish with slices of fresh strawberries or a few blueberries. Serve immediately, accompanied by extra Strawberry Compote.
