Shantel VanSanten's aim remains true in 'Shooter' Season 2

By Jay Bobbin

If a series with the title "Shooter" ups the action stakes in its second season, that comes as no surprise to its female lead.

Shantel VanSanten was directly in the line of fire as military veteran and skilled sniper Bob Lee Swagger's (Ryan Phillippe) wife Julie as Season 1 of the USA Network drama series ended. The former "One Tree Hill" and "The Messengers" actress, who says she loves "action that engages you physically and mentally," came back "happy and willing" for even deeper involvement in the show's sophomore round that begins Tuesday, July 18.

While plot details have been scarce, the new "Shooter" story arc evidently brings danger right to the ranch of the Swaggers and their young daughter Mary (Lexy Kolker). "Our writers are really wonderful at constructing character arcs within the action," VanSanten notes, "the slow burn of getting to know Julie and Bob Lee and their relationship and, by the end of Season 1, being able to see where her heart and her strength really lie."

"That's in protecting her family and, obviously most importantly, her daughter. To see them as a family unit and a team is what I think is the core and the heartbeat of the show. That's what they fight for, what has kept Bob Lee and so many Marines I've spoken to alive, seeing your family and having that moment when your kid runs into your arms. Now, the fight gets brought to our front door, rather than being on a bigger scale." VanSanten hints that she "did a lot of gun training" to prep for the return.

With co-stars Omar Epps, Cynthia Addai-Robinson and Eddie McClintock also back, "Shooter" — inspired by the 2007 movie starring Mark Wahlberg, an executive producer of the series, and Stephen Hunter's novel "Point of Impact" — has notable Season 2 cast additions. Desmond Harrington ("Dexter"), Beverly D'Angelo, Harry Hamlin ("Mad Men"), William Fichtner (recently of "Mom") and WWE's Randy Orton appear in the new stories.

"Shooter" faced several telecast delays last year due to real-world shootings. "I respected our studio's and our network's decision to postpone the show out of respect for the lives lost," VanSanten reflects. "It's hard, because some of our art is going to mimic life, and life is going to mimic art ... but there is a time and a place, and a respectful way of doing things. We all had faith, and we knew the story we were telling was an important one."

Before she began "Shooter," VanSanten played police detective Patty Spivot on The CW's "The Flash." She says she remains very open to returning to that adventure if the producers can fit her in.

"I haven't had a conversation with them," she allows, "but what's cool is that with our shooting schedule now, I am free. They start in July and we finish in July, so if they wanted to bring me back, I'll shout from the rooftops that I would love nothing more than to go and reprise that role."

'Descendants 2' descends upon multiple channels for its premiere

By Jay Bobbin

Thanks to the big success of "Descendants," you won't have a problem finding "Descendants 2."

The movie sequel "Descendants 2" premieres Friday on multiple networks including Disney Channel and ABC.

A follow-up to the fifth-most-watched cable movie to date, the Disney-produced musical-fantasy sequel — continuing the adventures of the young offspring of some of the studio's most famous characters — premieres simultaneously on a number of the company's outlets Friday, July 21. Originating network Disney Channel, Disney XD, ABC, Freeform and Lifetime all will present the debut, with the movie then available via their digital and On Demand platforms.

The new tale finds the children of such Disney villains as Maleficent and the Evil Queen trying to forge new lives in the charmed land Auradon. They ultimately end up back on the Isle of the Lost, where they face other scheming offspring including the sons of Captain Hook and "Beauty and the Beast's" Gaston in a battle to keep the line between good and evil intact.

Among the returnees from "Descendants" — in addition to actors Dove Cameron and Cameron Boyce and director Kenny Ortega ("High School Musical") — is singer-actress Sofia Carson. She clearly got a career boost from the original movie, going on to star in Disney Channel's remake of "Adventures in Babysitting," score a recording deal (which has yielded several singles) and perform the National Anthem on PBS' most recent telecast of "A Capitol Fourth."

"It's pretty incredible," the pleasant Carson says of the five-network "Descendants 2" premiere. "I feel very honored and very lucky that they believe in this project so much to all show it at once. Even though the first film was big and beautiful and epic, the second time around is much bigger in scope. The musical numbers are among my favorite parts of the film, and the story line is really beautiful as well.

"In the first film, you were introduced to the Villain Kids, but now you really get to dive deep and know each of them," Carson notes, explaining that her character — the Evil Queen's daughter Evie — "has always told the story of girl power. She's living her dream as a fashion designer, and trying to forget who she is and where she came from. I think hers is a story of self-love, and of knowing that the most important thing in the world is to never be afraid to be who you are."

Movie at the Library and Concert in the Park on July 19

Mayor Jimmy Davis announced that the Bayonne Public Library is showing Fences in its summer film series on Wednesday, July 19, at 1:00 p.m. in the O'Connor Gallery on the second floor of the library. The building is located at 31st Street and Avenue C.

In Fences, Denzel Washington and Viola Davis star in a drama that examines the ambitions, conflicts, and social problems that affect a family. The film is set in Pittsburgh's black community in the 1950's. Fences is rated PG-13, and has a running time of 2 hours and 19 minutes.

The films intended primarily for children will be shown July 26 through August 16. Youngsters attending the children's films must be accompanied by an adult. No children will be admitted for the adult selections.

The following films will be shown on future Wednesdays. They are listed with their screening dates and ratings: Beauty and the Beast, July 26; Trolls, August 2; Boss Baby, August 9; and Sing, August 16.

Mayor Davis also announced that the City of Bayonne will present the next Summer Sounds by the Bay concert on Wednesday, July 19, at 7:00 p.m., weather permitting. The Inferno will present three decades of musical magic. The crowd will be dancing to the tunes of this entertaining group. From Barry White, The Duprees, Earth Wind & Fire, and Frank Sinatra to today's hot sounds of Bruno Mars, Robin Thicke, and Taylor Swift, The Inferno can do it all.

The concert will be held at the amphitheater on the lower level of DiDomenico-16th Street Park, which is located between Avenue A and Newark Bay.

The Summer Sounds by the Bay concerts are sponsored by BCB Community Bank, Inserra Shop-Rite, Yellow Cab, Ken's Marine, RWJ Barnabas Health, Carepoint Health, Bayonne Chamber of Commerce, and Suez Water. The City of Bayonne thanks all of this year's sponsors, and would welcome additional sponsors for the concert series and other future events.

Crowd sizes will vary from one concert to another. At each performance, the City of Bayonne will provide a number of chairs free of charge, which may or may not offer enough seating for the entire audience. The City of Bayonne encourages people who want guaranteed seating to bring their own lawn chairs.

Vendors will be present on the lower level of DiDomenico-16th Street Park on concert nights. They will offer various food items and refreshments for sale to the public.

On concert days, in the event of inclement weather, please call 201-471-7590, or visit www.bayonnerec.com, or view the City of Bayonne's Facebook page to check on the status of that night's concert. In the event of rained-out concerts, the City of Bayonne would make every effort to reschedule the musical acts for later dates. Any rescheduled concerts would be announced as soon as circumstances might permit.

La Guardiola
GOURMET PIZZERIA & BISTRO

819 Broadway, Bayonne, NJ

by Lisa Tansey

With the weather getting warmer, it's nice to have a beautiful place to retreat to for delicious food. If you have yet to find where that special place is for you, look no further; La Guardiola is a gourmet pizzeria and bistro with a spacious outdoor patio. The patio shown above has large umbrellas and tables well spaced that will seat twenty people comfortably. If you prefer to dine in air-conditioning they provide a pleasant dining area to fit all your favorite people in. With brick walls, cozy ambiance, and delicious food, you will know how absolutely at home you are when you're at La Guardiola. At 819 Broadway in Bayonne (between 37th and 38th Streets), LaGuardiola is here to make your moments just a little better.

Owner Anthony Bonetti is pleased to be of service to his customers. Furthermore, staffed with his sister Francesca and his father Antonio, the pizzeria is run with family love to provide customers with that special feeling of home. Their food is nothing short of "grandma's secret recipe" good!

Even if you are more accustomed to ordering in, La Guardiola is still great choice. Whether you are venturing out, or staying home, help yourself to the fabulous menu items at La Guardiola. Let's start with pizza. If you want a gourmet pizza, perhaps Quattro Formaggi is your style - with mozzarella, ricotta, provolone, and gornonzola cheeses on it. Instead, try a barbecue chicken pizza, a buffalo chicken pizza, a chicken bruschetta pie, a scevello (mozzarella, fresh tomatoes, garlic, marinara sauce, and fresh basil), or many other enticing options.

Of course, for all of you classic lovers, you can enjoy an incredibly tasty traditional pizza as well! For all of you rebels, no worries! La Guardiola allows you to create your own so you can become a "pizza chef!"

If you're looking for something other than pizza, perhaps a yummy calzone or a satisfying salad is more your forte. Of course, we can't forget the outstanding appetizers on the menu! Grilled calamari, clams in the style you choose, and so much more! Is your mouth watering yet?

Lunch options include pressed paninis, original focaccia sandwiches, and hot hero sandwiches. Add a homemade soup to that, which is prepared daily, to really bring it all together.

For a larger entree, check out the stupendous gourmet pastas, traditional pastas, and classic dishes such as chicken, veal, or shrimp piccata or scarpariello. These classic dishes are served with pasta or vegetables and a soup or salad. What a deal!

They also offer amazing fish entrees at reasonable prices. If you order one of these great choices (or of course, their surprising daily specials), don't forget the remarkable side dishes you can compliment them with.

For anyone planning on hosting a party, keep in mind that La Guardiola does catering for all occasions. Give a call to 201-823-3399 for any questions, or stop in to see the Bonetti's (and more importantly, their menu) any time from Monday - Thursday 11 a.m. - 9 p.m., or Fridays and Saturdays from 11 a.m. - 10 p.m. Come see what a family run business can do and before you know it, you'll be family too! Ciao!

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21 It can be difficult to separate facts from the fiction, Taurus. However, you generally are a good lie detector. Put your skills to use to determine if someone is stringing you along.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21 Gemini, some shocking information may find you reeling if you do not stay grounded. Although it comes as a surprise, with some processing you will be able to handle it.

CANCER - Jun 22/Jul 22 Cancer, address a potentially mess situation before it gathers too much steam. Communication is all that's needed to ensure cooler heads ultimately prevail.

LEO - Jul 23/Aug 23 Leo, allow your plans for self-improvement to take center stage, especially true if you have put them on the shelf for some time. Make yourself a priority.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22 Virgo, you don't tend to be reckless, but even you can surprise others sometimes with your behavior. Let the tongues wag if it means stepping out of your comfort zone.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23 Libra, take others' candor with a grain of salt. They might just be blowing off steam and they will appreciate having someone there who listens.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22 Scorpio, you sometimes have a sarcastic sense of humor that makes you loved by some and disliked by others. Explain to the latter group that you mean no harm.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21 Sagittarius, a possible breakthrough in your communication levels may open up a whole new world. This can only improve your relationships and help your career.

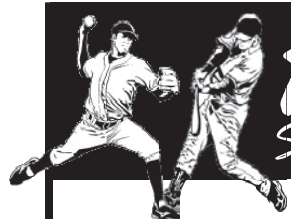

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20 Capricorn, you're very good at balancing the elements of your life. This week may be especially challenging as many things come your way in rapid succession.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18 Aquarius, others may seem sure about their actions even if you feel lost. Don't put too much stock in it, as everyone copes with self-doubt from time to time.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20 Some of your beliefs are non-negotiable, Pisces. This can make for some rather heated conversations. But you're up to the challenge.

TV PIPELINE

By Jay Bobbin

Q: Was Craig Ferguson always a regular on "The Drew Carey Show"? — Pete Ralston, Columbus, Ohio

A: He joined the ABC sitcom (now seen in repeats on Laff) in its second season, in 1996 — as the fictionalized Drew's boss, Mr. Wick — and remained a regular cast member through the eighth, then made two guest appearances in the show's ninth and final year.

The two performers have maintained ties to each other since, a very notable example being the switch they made between their CBS shows on April Fools' Day in 2014. Ferguson filled in for Carey as host of that day's episode of "The Price Is Right," while Carey sat behind the desk that night on the then-Ferguson-hosted "Late Late Show."

Q: Is "The Last Ship" going to be renewed? — Nancy DuPree, Port Orange, Fla.

A: It already has been, at least for this year. In fact, TNT launches Season 4 of the drama series with a two-hour premiere Aug. 20. The new episodes will prove there's no rest for the weary, since the virus that was fought by the U.S.S. Nathan James now threatens the world's food supply — and forces Tom

Craig Ferguson

Chandler (played by Eric Dane) back into action.

"The Last Ship" also has been renewed for a fifth season. Normally, that would be expected to debut next summer, but a production hiatus delayed the start of filming of those episodes. Exactly when those will arrive on screens remains to be seen, then, but an announcement on that wouldn't be likely until next spring anyway.

Q: Is it true that "Criminal Minds: Beyond Borders" was canceled? — Marcia Bradley, Reading, Pa.

A: It is, meaning that the original CBS show now has outlasted two spinoffs, also including the Forest Whitaker-starring "Criminal Minds: Suspect Behavior." However, one of the "Beyond Borders" characters has survived: Daniel Henney will reprise his role from that series as Matt Simmons as a cast regular in Season 13 of "Criminal Minds," having already made several crossover appearances on the original drama.
