PROFESSIONAL TOUCH DRY CLEANERS & TAILORS

482 Avenue C (bet. 21st & 22nd St.) Bayonne, N.J.

Call Mario at 201-437-1580 or 201-232-3470

By David Burstein

The first thing you should understand about this cleaning establishment is that it is by far, one of the prime and outstanding cleaners and tailors in the Hudson County area. It's secret, but openly positive asset, is that it is owned and actively run and managed by that experienced tailor and entrepreneur Mario Rivellini. Mario has been doing dry cleaning and expert tailoring for almost half a century. Therefore, with all that experience, he must be doing something right.

He has now opened a sparkling new and modern store at 482 Avenue C, between 21st and 22nd Streets in Bayonne which is only one block down from his previous location of many years. It is larger than his previous operation and is able to house high efficiency, state-of-the-art new equipment designed to enhance the cleaning process in its entirety. The overall effect of being able to go to a cleaning establishment that does all the work on your personal clothing right on the premises, is great for the customer. If there is a problem, it can be rectified immediately. Here, there is no waiting. Repairs or cleaning or pressing can be accomplished in hours.

Still, the man behind all this is the best secret weapon of all... Mario Rivellini. He is a master tailor who, like a medical surgeon can repair a tear in your clothing and not leave a scar. His hands are magic. His expert tailoring is one of his greatest assets. Any cleaner can dry clean your clothes, or press your shirts to look nice and fresh again, but it's another story when mending or fixing a problem is involved. Then it's nice to have an expert, like Mario, on hand.

Everyone knows it's nearing "back-to-school" time and Professional Touch has a 50% off special on all children's dry cleaning and tailoring for all clothing, plus uniforms. Hurry in, for this offer ends Sept. 15, 2010. Seniors are offered 25% off their cleaning needs and as an introductory offer at this new location, cleaning that comes to $40.00 or more gets $15.00 off.

Professional Touch Cleaners & Tailors offers same day service, 24 hour drop-off and free pick up and delivery. You couldn't as for more from any dry cleaners. Use the services given here, and you'll always look neat, clean and magnificent. You can't beat that!

HOROSCOPES

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20 Aries, a little luck and a whole lot of hard work will get you the prize you desire. Expect this week to be a lesson in determination. But take the time for a little fun, too.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21 Taurus, gather all the facts before making an important decision. The answer you are seeking is a little further away than you may have thought.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21 Gemini, look before you leap because the water may be more shallow than you thought. That means you have to give more consideration to your choices this week.

CANCER - June 22/July 22 Cancer, there's not much you touch this week that won't work to your advantage. Enjoy your string of good fortune and accomplish every thing that needs to get done.

LEO - July 23/Aug 23 Leo, familial obligations take you away from other things that you want to get done. But stay focused and remember there will be time for fun later.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22 Virgo, instead of projecting negative energy, start thinking in a positive way and things may turn around for you. Thursday proves to be a tumultuous day.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23 Someone close to you may need a little extra affection this week, Libra. That's because he or she is going through a rough spot. You will know what to say to calm nerves.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22 Scorpio, you can't help but jump to conclusions and get your feathers ruffled. But it's better to get all of the details sorted out so that you can look at the facts.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21 Sagittarius, you may not have the right words but you certainly get your point across when someone asks for your opinion on financial matters. Stand by your advice this week.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20 Things that seem insurmountable are much more manageable than you first thought, Capricorn. It's all about the angle at which you look at things.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18 Aquarius, your initial perception may not be correct. It's important to trust your instincts, but it's also good to get all the information you need.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20 Pisces, it will take a little time for you to get the bounce back in your step. Once you do, you'll be back to normal.

Piers Morgan loves America and its 'Talent'

By Kate O'Hare

He may be Irish by ethnicity and British by nationality, but Piers Morgan loves America, and over the course of several years as a judge on NBC's "America's Got Talent," currently airing Tuesdays and Wednesdays, he's gotten to see a lot of the nation and its people.

He's even written a book about his experiences, called "God Bless America: Misadventures of a Big Mouth Brit," released in 2009.

"When I used to come here as a young show-business reporter for one of the London papers, I had a warped view," Morgan says. "The only Americans I met were lawyers, entertainment agents, managers and celebrities, which is not a very good reflection of the real America. So, you end up thinking all Americans are like that, because they're the only ones you meet."

"The same way, if you're on holiday in Europe, and you see a bunch of football hooligans fighting, you could go, 'God, they're a bunch of savages.'"

As to what he's learned during his travels, Morgan says, "What a huge country this is, and so varied. As I've traveled around with 'America's Got Talent,' I've gone to the North, South, East, West - everywhere very different."

"The common ground, I think, is that American people are very courteous in a way, I think, Brits have unfortunately become less courteous. There's a great spirit and energy about America. There's a real can-do mentality, where you don't have a social class structure. Your structure is based on achievement and people who have done well for themselves. You embrace that and encourage that.

"It's intoxicating for Brits, where, a lot of the time in Britain, it's what kind of silver spoon you were born with in your family, is how you get on."

"So it's nice, the can-do mentality. America's not perfect, but it has a great spirit to it. Certainly if I was in trouble, I'd want to have a couple of Americans in my corner."

New this season to "America's Got Talent" is judge Howie Mandel, who replaced David Hasselhoff in the trio that also features Morgan and his fellow "Celebrity Apprentice" alumna Sharon Osbourne.

"It's been fun, hasn't it?" Morgan says. "Howie's fantastic. He's spent his entire time trying to wind me up, as we say in the U.K., and he's successful. So he's very, very irritating, but in a very funny way. It's all humor. He makes me laugh more offstage than he even does onstage."

Despite the focus, for example, on young talent on such shows as "American Idol," Morgan notes that favorites on "Talent" are much more diverse in every way, including age.

"A lot of the older acts have really captured the young mind," Morgan says. "I don't think age is ever a barrier on 'America's Got Talent.' It's all about the character and heart and talent.

"And likability is a big thing. They've got to like you. If people like you, you can go a long way with a reasonable talent. Where some people have got a great talent but no personality, they often just get bombed out. The public finds them rather boring."

Last season on "America's Got Talent," a chicken catcher from rural Kentucky named Kevin Skinner won the big prize. Earlier winners include ventriloquist Terry Fator, who is now a top-tier act in Las Vegas. Morgan expects more of the same this season.

"I think we're going to have an amazing semifinal and final based on what I've already seen," he says. "We've got some fantastic talent, and we're going to produce two or three big stars. Everyone's very excited on the show."

BEFORE AND AFTER IN THE SOAPS

By Toby Goldstein

ALL MY CHILDREN: After he and Annie made it clear to Scott and Marissa that they weren't intimate, JR tried convincing Marissa not to leave him, but she was too guilt-ridden to be honest with him about her betrayal. As Scott began making their wedding arrangements, Annie tried to convince JR and herself that this is what she wants. Coming: Marissa comes clean with JR.

AS THE WORLD TURNS: Desperate to free themselves, Barbara and Emily accidentally started a fire in the wine cellar and were finally discovered by Henry, Paul and Will. When Barbara wanted nothing to do with Henry, Katie convinced her to take him back. Barbara showed up at Henry's door and when he proposed, she said yes. Coming: Chris' condition reaches a crisis.

BOLD AND BEAUTIFUL: As Bill explained to Steffy how Justin and Liam were responsible for tampering with her video, Liam befriended Hope by rescuing her from paparazzi, and told her that Steffy is innocent. Liam shared some of his past with Hope, while she confided in him about her recent humiliation, leading them to share a kiss, which Oliver witnessed. Coming: Liam pays dearly for his role in the video tampering.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES: Taking advice from Victor about how to play Nicole, Rafe began to seduce her and, although wary, she was still drawn to him. When Nicole realized that Sami was watching their embrace, she started to kiss Rafe passionately. A horrified Sami fled and told EJ she wants to get married right away. Coming: Can Rafe stop the woman he loves from making a big mistake?

GENERAL HOSPITAL: Johnny intended to kill Sonny in a public place and make it look like self-defense. Shots were fired when the adversaries faced off on Baker Street. Franco's art dealer approached Brenda with an offer to be the face of Franco's next masterpiece. Having been given an ultimatum by Carly to seduce Dante, Brook gave him a date rape drug and kissed him passionately, which Lulu arrived home to witness. Coming: Patrick wrestles with telling Robin about him and Lisa. ONE LIFE TO LIVE: After Hannah told John what Eli did to her, John grilled Ford, pushing him to admit that Eli tried to kill him because of the blackmail evidence Ford had. John took this information as well as Natalie's reconstructed mug shot of Eli with the name of Bennett Thompson to Bo and Nora. Unaware of Ford's connection to Eli, Inez asked Eli to help her son, and Eli threatened Ford into recanting everything he had admitted. Coming: Todd is desperate to see Tea before it's too late.

YOUNG AND RESTLESS: As the judge was about to rule against Jill, her lawyer produced a surprise witness - Lauren's mother, Joanna, who testified that she knew about Neil's illegitimate daughter. Chloe began to investigate Ronan's background. Meanwhile, Paul learned the name of Nina's son who had been adopted. When Chloe confronted Ronan for lying about who he is, Ronan was forced to tell Chloe the truth regarding his identity. Coming: Jill believes her luck has finally changed.

WOLFGANG PUCK'S KITCHEN
 Celebrating Summer Vegetables
 By Wolfgang Puck

Now is one of the best times of year to cook with some of the most luscious, flavorful seasonal vegetables you can find. These are the "vegetable fruit," so named because, like fruit, they contain seeds. Even though they are savory like other vegetables, you can still also taste their kinship with fruit in the naturally sweet flavors that develop as they cook.

The secret to sauteing them successfully is to cut them into uniform pieces small enough to cook through completely in the relatively brief time they spend in the pan - cubes no more than 1/2 inch thick, far smaller than those for ratatouille. It also helps to start with smaller eggplants, such as the slender types sometimes called Japanese or Asian eggplants. These are more tender to begin with and have a sweeter flavor without the bitterness you find in many larger eggplants, so there's no need to salt them as long as these peak-of-season vegetables linger.

The rest is easy. Cook the cubed vegetables in olive oil. Add tomatoes that you've first cored, peeled (submerge in boiling water for about 30 seconds, then cool in ice water, and the skins should come off easily with the help of a knife), and seeded. Season with a little garlic and fresh herbs of your choice.

And there you have it: a fresh-tasting, delicious summer vegetable saute that goes perfectly with grilled or sauteed meat (like the lamb featured here), poultry, or seafood. You'll find the flavors, textures, and colors so fresh, sweet, and appealing that you'll want to make it again and again,

SAUTEED LAMB WITH ZUCCHINI AND EGGPLANT
 Serves 6

3 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
 1/2 pound small eggplant, cut into 1/2-inch cubes
 1/2 pound organic zucchini, cut into 1/2-inch cubes
 Salt
 Freshly ground black pepper
 2 garlic cloves, finely chopped
 2 sprigs fresh thyme
 1/2 pound fresh tomatoes, peeled, seeded, and cut into 1/2-inch cubes
 12 medallions lamb tenderloin, well trimmed, each 3 to 4 ounces
 1 cup dry white wine
 1 cup organic beef or chicken broth
 1 tablespoon chopped fresh tarragon
 4 tablespoons unsalted butter, cut into pieces
 Fresh tarragon leaves, for garnish

In a large, heavy saucepan, heat 2 table-spoons of the olive oil over medium-high heat. Add the eggplant and zucchini cubes, season with salt and pepper to taste, and add the garlic and thyme sprigs. Saute the vegetables, stirring frequently, until they are tender, about 10 minutes.

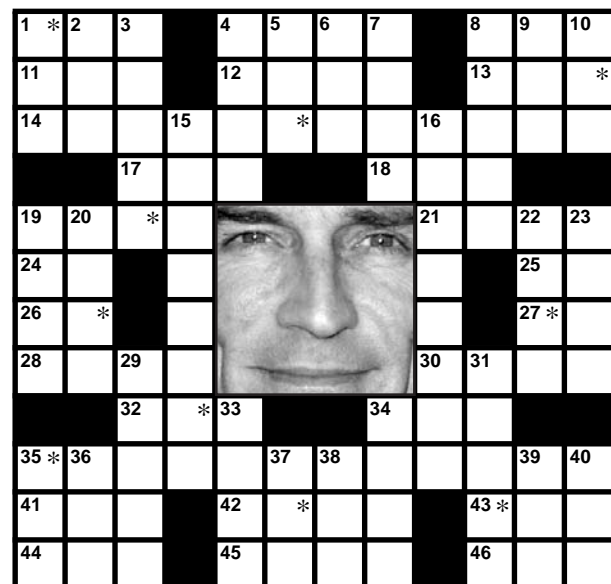

Add the tomatoes to the other vegetables and stir thoroughly, just until the tomatoes are heated, about 2 minutes. Taste the juices and, if necessary, add a little more salt and pepper. Cover and keep warm.

In a saute pan large enough to hold all the lamb without crowding, heat the remaining 1 tablespoon olive oil over medium-high heat. Season the lamb medallions on both sides with salt and pepper and add them to the pan. Cook to the desired degree of doneness (3 to 4 minutes per side for medium-rare), turning once. Transfer to a warmed plate and cover with aluminum foil to keep warm.

Carefully pour out the grease from the pan. Return the pan to the heat, add the white wine, and stir and scrape with a wooden spoon to deglaze the pan deposits. Continue boiling the wine until it has reduced slightly, 3 to 4 minutes. Stir in the broth and chopped tarragon and continue boiling until the liquid has thickened slightly, 7 to 10 minutes. A piece at a time, whisk in the butter. Taste and, if necessary, adjust the seasonings with salt and pepper.

Spoon some of the vegetable mixture onto the center of each heated serving plate. Top the vegetables with 2 pieces of lamb per plate. Spoon the sauce over and around the lamb and vegetables. Garnish with tarragon leaves and serve.

DO YOU SUFFER FROM NEUROPATHY?

When a person has neuropathy in both legs your life can be filled with a great deal of pain—in both nerves and brain. Whether you have poorly controlled diabetes, spinal stenosis or chemical damage from cholesterol or cancer drugs you might feel like you are at the end of your rope. I routinely see patients who feel like they cannot relax their legs, can't sleep or get comfortable, with severe pain down the legs to the toes, depression, wounds that don't heal. After learning how to help these patients I realized that the joy of my job is creating peace in people's lives, and have established a Peripheral Neuropathy Pain Treatment Program.

The problem is often misdiagnosed, or not at all. It affects the lives of 10 to 20 million Americans. This problem can cause:

- Numbness
- Burning pain
- Cramping
- Sharp, tingling, or electric pain
- Painful walking
- Difficulty sleeping from leg/foot discomfort.

If you suffer from one or more of these problems, you may have Peripheral Neuropathy. And, if you do, you're not alone.

HAVE YOU BEEN TOLD TO TRY OR HAVE TRIED...

- Painful injections
- Physical therapy
- Acupuncture
- Medication or Vitamins
- Or "JUST LIVE WITH IT!"

INNOVATIVE CARE — POWERFUL RESULTS

You can't have nerve pressure or 'pinched nerves' and get better from neuropathy. Using the latest in technology, I offer non-invasive care. I use patented instrumentation that is highly-researched, low-force and computerized. This frees the nerves, and the damage caused by old herniated discs or arthritis. This instrument is 100 times faster than the hands. This remarkable painless procedure works great.

MORE ABOUT THIS UNIQUE CARE

Low Level Light Therapy (LLLT) is a newly developed tool also known as "cold" laser—uses near-infrared light. This painless, non-invasive light has been shown to help patients suffering with neuropathy symptoms.

DO YOU QUALIFY FOR THIS NEW PROGRAM?

When you call and make an appointment, I'll perform a highly-specialized Qualitative Clinical Scoring System of the Peripheral Nervous System to see if we may be able to help. If not, I will tell you and steer you in the right direction. I'll do this Evaluation and Qualifying Process Completely FREE! (A $225 Value).

Sincerely,

Eric Chludzinski, D.C.

Not For Everyone. While this technology is certainly not for everyone and may not be helpful for your type of problem, there is also a tremendous possibility that it is a life-saving solution you have been hoping and praying for — the solution that could give you your life back.

Here's what some of your neighbors have to say:

"It was a great experience."

I received excellent care. Everyone was friendly, professional, caring, understanding and concerned about my well being. It was a great experience and I will be happy to refer other people.

"After the first day my feet were no longer cold."

I was skeptical of the treatments —nothing in the past worked. I was thrilled that after the first day my feet were no longer cold. I am now able to sleep without socks which I haven't been able to do in 8 years. The pain is also getting progressively less. I am able to be on my feet for longer periods of time allowing me to get more exercise and feel better. My family says I'm more upbeat and fun to be around!

"I have felt a 75% improvement in my hand, lower back and knees."

My name is Norma Wolmers and I came to this office because of pain and difficulty of movement of my hands and fingers. I also had a serious pain on my lower back which made it very hard to walk and perform chores around the house and I was also having problems and pain on the knees which made things worse. I saw an article in the paper and I decided to come in and get examined. The first visit the doctor took all my problems assessed them and by the second visit he had a care plan. Since I started treatment here I have felt a 75% improvement in my hands, lower back and knees. The staff and over all treatments in the office are great and that is why I would recommend it to anyone that wants to feel better.
